

Founder Clarity & Execution Sprint

6 live working sessions
with Bryna Kirzner

★ Also: Mission-to-Business Clarity Sprint for Veterans & Transitioning Military

You don't need more ideas. You need clarity, decisions, and a system you'll actually use. This is a 6-week working sprint where we get everything out of your head, decide what actually matters, and build the structure that makes execution predictable. We do the work live — no homework, no theory, no wasted time.

WHAT WE DO - 6 WEEKS

- 01 Shape of Your Days
Where your time actually goes — mapped live, no guessing
- 02 Clear the Cloud
Everything competing for your attention — out of your head and onto the board
- 03 Effort vs. Impact
Is the squeeze worth the juice? Decide what stays and what goes
- 04 Priority Funnel
What's now, what's next, what's never — sequenced and decided
- 05 Kanban
A system that moves work predictably — built around how you actually think
- 06 Calendaring & Roadmap
Your 30–90 day plan — committed to a calendar, not just a list

WHAT YOU LEAVE WITH

- Clear priorities — decided, not postponed
- A Miro board built live and ready to use
- An execution system built around how you work
- A 30–90 day roadmap on a real calendar
- Momentum without overwhelm

WHO THIS IS FOR

- CEOs, founders, entrepreneurs, and solopreneurs
- Leaders moving from operator to CEO
- Veterans and military leaders transitioning into business ownership
- Anyone carrying too much and needing structure before scaling

"Before we do anything more advanced, we start here. We get everything out of your head, decide what actually matters, and build a system you'll use. Six weeks. Live together."

Six Weeks. Everything Changes.
